Introduction

The following is taken from The 3-18 Education Trust's schools' Behaviour Policy:

The 3-18 Education Trust believes that good behaviour in schools is central to a good education. In order to become accomplished, resilient and compassionate young people when they leave us, all young people must feel confident enough to take risk and make mistakes.

However, in order to full reach their potential, our pupils require clear boundaries and support so that they can learn in a calm, safe and supportive environment and are protected from disruption.

It is our aim that every member of the trust's community – pupils, staff, parents, governors, trustees, the wider community - feels valued and respected, and all stakeholders must be treated fairly. We expect all members of our community to set an example to others in order to establish the highest standards of behaviour.

In so doing we aim to promote good behaviour, self-discipline and respect, prevent bullying and ensure our pupils complete their work to the best of their ability. Ultimately, our aim is to prepare our pupils for life after school

There are two main types of exclusion: suspension and permanent.

In most cases, suspension (whether internal or external) and permanent exclusion will be the last resort after a range of measures have been tried to improve a pupil's behaviour. This is because we want all our pupils to access the curriculum through their lessons. We will provide support to pupils to allow them to change their behaviour. This could include:

- engaging at an early stage with parents/carers
- placing a pupil on report for a fixed period of time, with regular reviews
- Planning Meetings to determine actions to modify behaviour as appropriate
- the engagement of outside agencies as appropriate
- interventions/assessment by the SENDCO in appropriate cases
- restorative justice, which enables the offender to redress the harm done to a victim in appropriate cases
- counselling
- providing support through the Early Help forum
- mediation through a trained mediator

We follow statutory guidelines, and the final decision to suspend/permanently exclude can be made only by the Headteachers of each school, although this may be delegated to a Deputy, or passed to the Chief Executive Officer of the Trust if the Headteacher is absent.

When deciding to suspend or permanently exclude a pupil, the Senior Leadership Team of each school will ensure there has been a thorough investigation and that a written record is kept.

Suspensions

The following incidents or offences will normally lead to a suspension, although extenuating circumstances may alter the sanction applied to an individual pupil and this list is not exhaustive:

- persistent disruption / defiance
- continual refusal to comply with the school rules and sanctions
- deliberate damage or vandalism
- theft
- swearing directly at a member of staff
- physical violence towards a pupil or member of staff
- persistent bullying or bullying behaviour (See Behaviour Policy)
- bringing the school into disrepute
- bringing an offensive weapon onto the school premises
- possession of illegal substances on the school site
- inappropriate use of social media
- sexual abuse
- sexual harassment
- racism (including graffiti)

The following factors will be considered before the decision to suspend (and the length of the suspension):

- ensuring that the pupil is invited to give their version of events (if circumstances allow, this will be a written statement)
- pupil status eg PP, LAC, SEND
- ensuring that a thorough investigation has been carried out
- consideration of all the evidence available to support the allegations, taking account of the schools' behaviour and equal opportunities policies
- consideration of whether the incident is provoked, e.g. by bullying/bullying behaviour or by racial or sexual harassment (provocation will not necessarily mean an exclusion/suspension will not be given)
- gathering written statements from all involved where appropriate and possible
- the age of the pupil
- the disciplinary record
- the nature of the offence
- exam obligations

The standard of proof to be applied is on the balance of probabilities, i.e. if it is more probable than not that the pupil did what he or she is alleged to have done, the Headteacher may suspend/exclude the pupil.

Where a pupil is suspended the school will:

- inform parents/carers immediately
- confirm the decision, details and expectations in writing within 1 working day
- notify parents/carers of their responsibility to ensure that their child is not present in a public place in school hours during the first five days of any suspension (parents/carers may be given a fixed penalty notice or prosecuted if they fail to do so)

- undertake to set and monitor work for that pupil for the first five days of the exclusion
- provide full time education (off site or in a shared provision) from the sixth day of any period of suspension of six days or longer
- advise any sanctions that may be imposed for non-attendance of the provision for the sixth day onwards
- consider how the time out of school might be used to address the pupil's problems
- consider what support will best help with the pupil's reintegration into the school at the end of the suspension

After a suspension pupils must attend a re-admission meeting which should take place immediately prior to the pupil returning. This is the main part of the re-integration process and must be attended by parent/carer(s) and the pupil and is managed by school staff. The terms of re-admission are discussed, agreed and confirmed by signatures at this meeting and provision for continued support for the pupil arranged at this time.

The purpose of the re-admission interview is to assist the reintegration of the pupil and promote the improvement of his or her behaviour. It provides an opportunity to:

- emphasise the importance of parents/carers working with the school to take joint responsibility for their child's behaviour
- discuss how behaviour problems can be addressed
- explore wider issues and any circumstances that may be affecting the child's behaviour
- reach agreement on how the child's education should continue, how best they can be reintegrated and what measures could be put in place to prevent further misbehaviour
- create a useful forum to consider with parents/carers the possibility of a parenting contract
- hear from the pupil of their reflection on the reasons behind suspension and for the headteacher (or an appropriate senior member of staff) to judge if such reflection warrants their return. The suspension may be extended if it is felt that the pupil has neither reflected nor learnt from their actions and the resulting suspension.

Permanent Exclusions

Repeated offences could ultimately lead to permanent exclusion. Permanent exclusion will usually be considered as a 'last resort' action, applied only when all other methods and strategies have failed. However, permanent exclusion could follow after certain single incidents, which are deemed to be extremely serious.

These might include (although this is not an exhaustive list):

- serious actual or threatened violence against a member of staff
- serious actual or threatened violence against another pupil
- theft from school, a pupil or a member of staff
- continual refusal to comply with the school rules and sanctions
- sexual abuse or assault
- possession or supplying (including the intent to supply) an illegal substance

- carrying an offensive weapon (with possible intent to cause harm)
- through social media or other means, slanderous offensive behaviour/language towards any member of the internal or wider school community

Schools now have a power to screen and search pupils for weapons. We will consider whether or not to inform the police where a criminal offence may have taken place. Contacting the Young Offending Team and/or social workers will also be considered.

We will not exclude for:

- truanting or non-attendance
- uniform or appearance
- poor academic progress
- behaviour of parents/carers
- refusal to sign a home school agreement

If a pupil is permanently excluded the school will:

- notify parents of their responsibility to ensure that their child is not present in a public place in school hours during their first five days of any permanent exclusion.
- undertake to set and mark work for that pupil for the first five days of the exclusion.
- advise parents or carers that, during the first week of the exclusion, that the Local Authority will arrange to assess the pupil's needs and how to meet them; arrange a meeting with them to discuss options; and that from the sixth school day ensure that suitable full time education is provided.
- arrange a meeting of Local Governors to review the exclusion and decide whether to uphold it, inviting the Local Authority to be in attendance.

Pupils who are permanently excluded will remain on the school roll during the period allowed for appeals or removed sooner if the Local Authority confirms there will be no appeal.

The Role of the Local Governing Body

Responsibilities regarding suspensions and permanent exclusions is delegated to the Local Governing Body's Pupil Discipline Committee. A clerk who is experienced in pupil suspension / permanent exclusions will be appointed by the Local Governing Body.

The Pupil Discipline Committee has a duty to consider reinstatement of a suspended / permanently excluded pupil as follows:

For suspensions of five days or less:

- The Pupil Discipline Committee will consider any representation from parents/carers within 50 days after receiving notice of the suspension but does not have to meet with the parents/carers.
- The Pupil Discipline Committee has no power to re-instate or overturn a decision (but can place findings in the pupil's record).

For suspensions of 6 – 15 days in any one term (single event or cumulative):

- The Pupil Discipline Committee will consider any representation if parents/carers request a meeting within 50 days after receiving notice of the suspension.
- The Committee can uphold a suspension or reinstate the pupil (earlier or immediately)

For suspensions exceeding 15 days in any one term, and in all permanent exclusion cases:

- The Pupil Discipline Committee must meet within 15 days after receiving notice of the suspension/permanent exclusion.

For a suspension or permanent exclusion that will result in the pupil missing a public exam or national curriculum test:

- The Pupil Discipline Committee must take reasonable steps to meet before the date of the examination and in any event within 15 days after receiving notice of the suspension/permanent exclusion.

References to days are 'school days.'

Pupil Discipline Committee Meeting with Parents/Carers and Pupil.

The following parties will be invited to the meeting and are allowed to make representations:

- Parents (and, where requested, a representative or friend) and the pupil.
- The Headteacher.
- Parents may request that the local authority and/or the home local authority attend a meeting as an observer. That representative may only make representations with the Pupil Discipline Committee's consent
- The child's social worker if the pupil has one.
- The Virtual School Head if the child is a Looked After Child.

The Pupil Discipline Committee must make reasonable endeavours to arrange the meeting for a date and time that is convenient to all parties, but within the time limits set out above. However, any decision will not be invalid simply on the grounds that it was not made within these time limits.

Where possible, any written evidence and information, including a list of those who will be present, will be circulated to all parties at least five school days in advance of the meeting.

Reasonable adjustments will be made to support the attendance and contribution of parties at the meeting.

The suspended/permanently excluded pupil will be encouraged to attend the meeting and speak on their own behalf, taking into account the pupil's age and understanding. If attending the exclusion meeting is not possible, other means will be considered to allow the suspended/permanently excluded pupil to make representations.

Considering the Suspension/Permanent Exclusion of a Pupil

The Pupil Discipline Committee can either:

- decline to reinstate the pupil, or
- direct the reinstatement of the pupil immediately, or on a particular date

In reaching a decision, the Pupil Discipline Committee will consider whether the exclusion was lawful, reasonable and procedurally fair and whether the Headteacher followed their legal duties. The committee will decide whether or not a fact is true 'on the balance of probabilities', which differs from the criminal standard of 'beyond reasonable doubt', as well as any evidence that was presented in relation to the decision to exclude.

Minutes will be taken of the meeting, and a record of evidence considered kept.

The Pupil Discipline Committee will notify, in writing, the Headteacher, parents/carers and the Local Authority of its decision, along with reasons for its decision, without delay.

An Independent Review of the Pupil Discipline Committee's Decision not to Reinstate a Pupil

The parents/carers have 15 school days from notice being given to them of the Pupil Discipline Committee decision to request the school to arrange for an independent review panel hearing to review the decision not to reinstate the permanently excluded pupil.

The independent panel will decide one of the following:

- Uphold the Pupil Discipline Committee decision.
- Recommend that the Pupil Discipline Committee reconsiders reinstatement.
- Quash the Pupil Discipline Committee decision and direct that they reconsider reinstatement (only when the decision is judged to be flawed).

Policy Monitoring and Review

Monitoring

The Chief Executive Officer and Deputy Executive Officer will monitor the outcomes and impact of this policy/procedure on an annual basis.
