

Checklist for crime and punishment

Area	Good	Okay	Need to revise
Medieval crimes and causes
Tudor causes of crimes
Heresy
Vagrancy
Treason
17th and 18th century crimes and causes:
Smuggling
Highway robbery
Industrial Revolution crimes and causes: development of cities and increase in crime rate, protest groups, rookeries and prostitution etc.
Modern crimes and their causes: car, computer, terrorism, hooliganism, drug crime and gun and knife crime
Who was responsible for enforcing law and order in Saxon and medieval times
Role of the church and royal courts in late medieval period
Civic and parish responsibilities in 16th century
State police in 19th century
Changing nature of modern police force
Methods of combatting crime in Saxon and medieval times
Role of JPs and other parish officers
Changing in policing methods
Bow street runners
Setting up Met police force
Police in 19th century and changes to their methods
Modern police force and how they combat crime
Punishment in Saxon and Medieval time
Punishment for vagabonds during Tudor times
Punishment in 16th century (corporal and capital) Use of public punishment such as stocks, pillory and types of public execution
Examples of people publically executed (John Penry and MQS)
Imprisonment in 16th and 17th centuries (House of correction, Bridewells and debtors prisons)
Transportation
Reform of the Criminal and Bloody Codes
End of public executions

Checklist for crime and punishment

[illegible]